Telegraph Agency of the U.S.S.R. (TASS) MOSCOW, U.S.S.R.:

Gathering and ~~xxxx~~ transmitting American and United Nations news to the USSR. Our news sources include: the despatches of American news agencies with which we have contractual relations (the Associated Press and the United Press International); the newspapers published in New York, Washington, and various other cities of the United States and Latin America; magazines and other periodicals; press releases and reports issued by government and private agencies and institutions.

In addition, our correspondents directly cover important press conferences, public meetings and other developments when circumstances and our resources permit. For instance, Tass correspondents cover the meetings of the United Nations Security Council and other United Nations bodies; our correspondents in Washington cover White House and State Department press conferences and important congressional debates, etc. On the basis of these sources, we write our daily news reports. After the reports are written and edited, they are transmitted through the Mouse computer system of the Associated Press. Our area of coverage includes Latin America as well as the United States, and our reports on Latin America are based on the despatches of the American news agencies and on Latin American newspapers and periodicals

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)
